

1. One with firm self-knowledge is like a lighted oil lamp. Implying (1) Oil (2) Wick (3) Flame (4) Oxygen.
 - a. What do each compare to. Talk about each.
 - b. Now bring it together in one sentence: How is jīvanmuktaḥ LIKE a “lighted oil lamp”?
2. Father plays prank and wears a mask. Child frightened! But when discovers the real truth behind the mask, from thereon, relationship to mask changes. Even amusing.
 - a. What is implication of this metaphor?
3. What is bhakti (devotion)? Answer by incorporating and explaining each word: Love, respect, reverence.
4. What do you know so far about aham kāra? What is it's function?
5. How is aham kāra interpreted for: (1) jñāni (2) ajñāni ?

Anything else on mind? Questions, doubts, comments, hometime? :)